UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff,

v.

LEONARD MATTHEWS,
Defendant.

Criminal No. 1:18-CR-0124
Civil No. 1:22-CV-1713

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE REPLY TO GOVERNMENT OBJECTIONS

NOW COMES LEONARD MATTHEWS, appearing before this Court in pro se, and moves for an extension of time to file a reply brief to the government's opposition to the originating Motion to Vacate, Set Aside, or Correct a Sentence pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §2255. For the reasons discussed in this filing, the motion should be granted.

I. TOLLING, MAILING DELAY, AND REPLY

My original §2255 petition was filed in my case docket on March 1, 2022. Doc. 109. Eight days later on March 9th, this Court filed an order finding that the §2255 motion should not be summarily denied as being without merit, and ordering the government to respond within 60 days. Doc. 110.

It also ordered that the scheduled date for my reply would be 30 days after the date on which I am served with the government response. "Movant shall have 30 days from the date on which Movant is served with Respondent's answer to file a response." Id.

This language accounts for the delay in receiving mail here at USP Lee. That order was given to me six days after it was filed on the docket, reaching me on March 15th.

Pursuant to the so-called "Prison Mailbox Rule," pleadings by incarcerated defendants/petitioners is considered filed "at the moment of delivery to prison authorities for forwarding to the district court." United States v. Waite, 12 F.4th 204, 2010 (2nd Cir. 2021) (citing a quotation from Houston v. Lack, 487 U.S. 266, 270 (1988)).

This grants me 30 full days from the date I received the government's response (if any), to the date I would be required to hand a reply to the prison staff here at USP Lee. The government filed their response on May 6, 2022, and I received that response on May 10, 2022. Therefore, the current schedule makes my reply due on June 9, 2022.

II. THE NEED FOR AN EXTENSION

In their response, the government argues several points that require a reply. The government argues that I do not understand the nature of New York law, and that I am over-extending the reach of Borden. The government also argues, from essentially thin air, that an approach different than what was used in Borden applies.

In order to effectively research and answer these arguments, I will need more than 30 days. I am an inmate (not a professional lawyer) and I have limited access to the law library at USP Lee. I work my inmate job as an Orderly and work that job from 5pm until lock-in, which is 8:45 pm. It is a tricky issue to conduct case law research and writing because we, here at USP Lee, often go on general lock-down because the Special Housing Unit (SHU) is full. That means the handling of incidents requires a lock-down of the entire unit, preventing me from accessing research and writing resources.

I believe that I will need another 30 days in order to write a complete reply, enabling this Court to rule on the merits of this case, rather than summarily dismissing the petition for lack of complete argumentation.

III. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, I respectfully request that this Court grant a 30 day extension to the due date for my reply making it timely if filed on or before July 11, 2022.
